

eLearning networking between regions in Brussels

“Bridging the European Learning Society: from the past to the future”

Brussels 20 November 2007
Wales House & Scotland House
Rond-Point Schuman 11 & 6

Morning Session (Wales House)

09.30 Registration

10.00 Setting the scene

Chair: Derek Morrison, Higher Education Academy (UK) (tbc)

- Description of BRELNET activities and introduction to the event
- European Commission/EACEA “LLP future priorities”

10.30 Learning from the past

- Helena Bijnens "From Virtual Campus to Reality" - Catholic University of Leuven
- Jim Herbolich “Quality management of ITC-based learning”; Director of Network Services - European Foundation for Quality in eLearning (EFQUEL) and European Foundation for Management Development (EFMD)
- The Tempus programme “New opportunities in the education sector”

11:15 Coffee break

11.45 Looking beyond and inspiring the future

Keynote speeches on:

- Anthony Camilleri "New teaching and learning techniques - from the students perspective" -
- Alison Hunter "HE, FE and VET: a comparative study looking at the future"
- Marta Lottes Project Manager European Association for the Education of Adults (tbc)
- Mikko Turunen "E-Support to European Vocational Student Exchange" International Affairs Co-ordinator Pirkanmaa Education and Training Consortium

12:30 Q&A session and conclusions

13:00 Lunch

Afternoon Session (Scotland House)

14:30 e-Learning c@fé: An informal environment to discuss project ideas

Introduction: UnioncamerePiemonte / South Denmark

1. New learning methodologies and technologies
2. Virtual training and emobility
3. Digital literacy and content production
4. Innovative language teaching and learning

17:30 Reception